

On 2nd May St ALOYSIUS' SCHOOL celebrated May Day, also known as Labour Day. There was a special assembly organised by the Media Committee of the School specially for the Service Staff of the School. The Welcome Address was given by Omi Yadav of Class 10 B, flowers were presented welcoming each one of them. The Introductory speech was given by Piyush Jha stressing upon the significance of May Day. A special prayer song was composed by the school Music teacher, Sir Mohit Francis Pradhan. He led the students in prayer for our service staff and their wellbeing. The prayer song was followed by a PowerPoint presentation showcasing the contributions of our Service Staff prepared by the Media Committee. Father Debraj Fernandes, the School Principal gave a short speech on this occasion & felicitated all the Service Staff with a token of appreciation. Mangal Singh, one of the Service staff spoke on this occasion about his journey in this school. The students were overwhelmed by his small speech. The Assembly ended with the singing of Our National Anthem.

